

The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston
Student InterCouncil (SIC)
Toshi Nikaidoh Service Award
Application Form

Hitoshi Christopher Nikaidoh, MD served as Student InterCouncil President from 2000-2001. As a medical student, Toshi embodied leadership and service, both within the University of Texas institution as well as the Houston community. He strived to bring better healthcare to the poor and disadvantaged, and a kindness for all humankind. As a 2003 graduate of The University of Texas Medical School Toshi was chosen by his classmates as the sole recipient of the Gold-Headed Cane Award for Humanism and Service.

Toshi passed away in a tragic accident in August of 2003, but his compassion and memory live on. The Student InterCouncil honors his memory by awarding an individual who demonstrates the qualities, passion, drive, selflessness and love for humanity with the Toshi Nikaidoh Service Award.

The amount of $1,000.00 will be awarded to the selected recipient. The Student InterCouncil (SIC) Scholarship Committee will review all applications and make the final selection of winner.
